

Consignment Contract (Rev. 12/14)
For My Sister's Closet,
My Sister's Attic & Well Suited

We set the prices on all consigned items. We do not guarantee any prices. Revisions of the asking price may be made at the store's discretion.

When an item is sold, the consigner receives either 55% of the selling price as store "trade" for other items in any of our stores or 45% of the selling price in cash (less any markdown amount or promotional fee).

Consigner attests to the authenticity of all consigned items, and has not knowingly requested the resale of counterfeit goods. Items deemed to be counterfeits will either be returned to consigner for a $50 handling fee or be destroyed and discarded. Furthermore, consigner attests that they have legal title to and are in legal possession of all items that are being consigned.

Prices on consigned items may be reduced at any time. Items unsold at the end of the consignment period are donated to a nonprofit group. You get the donation receipt for any items donated. With the store's permission, you can reclaim items priced higher than $50 for a $5/item pick-up fee. You must reclaim these items before 60 days from the intake date.

We reserve the right to move consigned items between our various locations.

Except for out-of-state consigners, we do not mail to or call consigners regarding consignment information; we do, however, pay consignment commissions daily at our stores once the consigned item is processed as sold. Consigners can come into any of our multiple locations to check the status of their account.

It is your responsibility to eliminate any items with visible defects or stains before consigning them. We reserve the right to donate any items found to have noticeable stains, defects, chips or flaws or any items that have been recalled.

We will do our best to protect your items, but we are not responsible for loss or damage to any item for any reason, including theft or fire.

I have read and agree to the above terms:
